PRINCIPAL’S COMMENTS

ATTENDANCE

It was very pleasing to hand out 70 certificates on Monday for children with excellent attendance in Term 1. Good attendance is one of the factors that leads to good academic progress. We want to say a big thank you to parents for supporting our school in reinforcing the importance of school attendance.

ANDREW FULLER

Resurrection Primary school are having well known clinical psychologist and family therapist, Andrew Fuller come to speak to their parent community on Thursday 26th May from 4.00pm—6.00pm. They have very kindly invited our parent community to join them. Andrew will be speaking about parenting issues and how to increase children’s resilience. Please keep this date free and more information will follow shortly.

ANZAC DAY

Last Friday our student school leaders hosted our annual Anzac Day service. Once again we can only praise the wonderful and respectful behaviour shown by all our students. We have received some thank you cards from local organisations. Garry Keenan from the St. Albans Sports Club said, “It was an emotional experience (with tears), but it was an experience that was fulfilling and unforgettable.” Our school leaders should feel very proud of their efforts. One of our special guests was Mr. Alan Godfrey. Mr. Godfrey is a 93 year old veteran of New Guinea, Borneo and Malaya. He was a warm favourite of the students and they loved talking to him and asking questions. I want to also thank Ms Ly Dao who prepared all our beautiful floral tributes.
