PRINCIPAL'S COMMENTS

MRS. BROOKS RETURNS

Mrs. Brooks returned to school on Friday the 14th of August. She has spent 6 weeks in the very warm and sunny countries of Europe. She looks tanned and relaxed, but eager to get back into work.

A huge thank you to Mrs. Graham who did a marvellous job as the acting Assistant Principal in Mrs. Brooks absence.

their wellbeing and their education. Many students will remember Mrs. Morris for many years to come, as will we.

Thank you to all the organising committee who put the function together and helped make the night a success.

MRS. MORRIS – RETIREMENT FUNCTION

Last night the school council and staff said their formal good byes and thank you to Mrs. Morris. We held a small function at school where we invited her family and past teachers to attend to officially say thank you and “HAPPY RETIREMENT.”

I am sure that she had a great time as many people paid special tribute to her for her 31 years work here at Movelle. Mrs

FIRST AID OPPORTUNITY FOR STUDENTS

We have been able to secure St. John First Aid organisation to come into our school and provide some simple first aid training to our students. This will be done in term 4, but will give students the opportunity to learn about first aid. Sessions will include simple first aid information like how to ring 000 in an emergency to how to look after people with cuts and bruises. This is really helpful
